RESIGNATION from Page One

submission. What appears more likely to Pentagon-watchers is that McNamara simply no longer feels, after his long tenure, that he can bring the proper amount of vigor and fresh thinking to the job.

A clue to many of the questions raised by the resignation could lie in the man President Johnson names to replace McNamara. Certainly, appointment of a person whose views on bombing of the North differ sharply from McNamara's will be interpreted by many as proof that stepped up bombing is imminent.

Interest to Farmers Will Be Higher

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—S. A. Morrow, president of the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of St. Louis, told representatives of 14 Arkansas Production Credit Associations Monday that interest rates charged to farmers would be substantially higher during the coming year.

Morrow said, however, that despite a Treasury Department request for a control on credit during the coming year the PCA in Arkansas should have enough money to supply Arkansas farmers.

Morrow urged the 100 PCA managers and directors to exercise prudence in lending. He said speculative and borderline loans or those to other than active farmers should be avoided.

He said an increased demand for credit caused a "tight money" situation that resulted in the Treasury Department action. Morrow said he anticipated a continued demand for credit.

He also said that the PCA district which includes Arkansas, Missouri and Illinois had given $52 million more credit in the first 10 months of the current fiscal year than for the same period last year.

Bodies Found in Missouri Identified

BUFFALO, Mo. (AP)—Two bodies found in a soybean field south of Buffalo may be those of two Montreal college students who were hitchhiking home from a summer vacation in Mexico, authorities said.

Montreal officials said Bertrand Kidd, 20, and Marjorie Sharp, 21, students at McGill University, were last seen Sept. 16 when they left a bus north of Mexico City.

The Missouri Highway Patrol said clothing near the woman's decomposed body bore a Canadian manufacturer's label.

The patrol said W. S. Cheek of West Memphis, Ark., recalled that about three months ago he brought two young hitchhikers from near the Mexican border to the Texas-Oklahoma line.

Cheek's description of the pair generally fit the victims, the patrol said. He also recalled that the girl said her father was a banker in Montreal.

The bodies were found Sunday on a farm 60 feet off U.S. Route 65. Coroner Jerry T. Cantion estimated they had been in the field about three months.

Woman Dies in Accident

ROGERS, Ark. (AP)—June Ann Taylor, 23, of Rogers was killed Monday night in the collision of her car and a tractor trailer truck on U.S. 71 about one-half mile south of Rogers.

State Police said her car veered into the path of the truck driven by James E. Hoffman, 30, of Spirit Lake, Iowa. Officers said Hoffman was not injured but a passenger in the truck, Bart Holm, 49, was injured.

Battle Cost Lives of 287 Americans

By JOHN T. WHEELER Associated Press Writer SAIGON (AP)—The largest and bloodiest sustained battle of the war around the highlands town of Dak To apparently was set off by the Communists more with an eye toward U.S. public opinion than for any long-range tactical advantage, a senior U.S. Command officer says.

The three-week battle cost 287 American lives and left 1,641 North Vietnamese dead on the battleground by U.S. count.

In surveying the U.S. Command can find strong reasons for both optimism and pessimism.

The senior U.S. officer, discussing this and other recent battles, said the pattern tended to reinforce a theory long held by the U.S. Command:

The Communists long ago decided they could not grab and hold strategic real estate in the face of American firepower and mobility. Their main objective then became to kill as many Americans as possible in steadily bigger battles. They hope to stir further antiwar sentiment in the United States and win through a collapse of will on the American home front, U.S. officials believe.

In recent months the Communists, picking the time and place for the big battles, have emphasized border areas where their supply lines are shortest and escape to sanctuaries in Cambodia and Laos is easy.

The big battles pull American battalions away from pacification areas to meet such major threats. Months of pacification work can be rolled back overnight if the Viet Cong are able to strike at points weakened by such troop drains.

There is also speculation at top U.S. Command levels that the Communists are experimenting with new infantry tactics built around such heavy weapons as large rockets and mortars.

Officers discount a theory that the Communists wanted to take and hold Dak To or other small towns around which recent big

Lost Subway Trains Trap 4,000 Under a River Tunnel an Hour

NEW YORK (AP)—The Great Day of Adventure for New York's straphangers started with a subway train getting "lost" and disgorging its 800 passengers far, far away from where they had hoped they were headed.

The day ended with a widespread power failure that caused havoc—including 4,000 riders on four trains trapped for an hour in a tunnel under the East River.

In between these snafus Monday was a day of what one city official called "compounded confusion."

But the Transit Authority can't change 8 of the 36 subway routes and expect the customers to catch on right away, even though authority member John J. Gilhooly pronounced New Yorkers "remarkably adaptable."

Gilhooly and the other authority member, Daniel T. Scannell, checked operations at the morning and evening rush hours and pronounced the changeover "about 90 per cent effective."

They estimated that the major effects of the changes were felt by at least 200,000 of the 2.25 million persons who use the subways daily.

The route and station changes — New York's first major subway reorganization in 27 years — went into effect Sunday, but the real impact was not felt until the start of the work week Monday. The major goal is to carry passengers more quickly and more directly between distant points.

Before Monday's biggest fouls—intermittent power failures, stalled trains and jammed station platforms—Gilhooly said: "The fares were not with us today. Tomorrow will be better, we hope."

Passenger reaction ranged from a woman's complaint about riding on a crowded "cow train," to remarks that would not look good in print, to a woman's comment that: "It's easy once you get on the train—especially if you get on the right train." Unfamiliar letters that replaced route names on the trains caused some of the confusion.

Russians Drug, Search U.S. Attaches

MOSCOW (AP)—Five or six men attacked and searched the American and British military attaches in Moscow after they were served apparently drugged wine on a trip this month near the Romanian border, the two embassies charged in protest notes to the Soviet government.

An American spokesman said today the Soviet reply "was not considered satisfactory" and that further protests are being considered in Washington and London.

The U.S. Embassy and the British Foreign Office said the incident occurred Nov. 17 when the British attaché, Brig. C. A. des N. Harper and U.S. Col. William J. Spahr of Philadelphia, Pa., were visiting Kishinev, capital of Soviet Moldavia.

The attaches toured an experimental winemaking farm in the area at the suggestion of their Soviet guide, sampled its wines and sherries and ate food. On returning to their hotel room they became ill, vomited and went to bed, a statement from the British Foreign Office said.

"A subsequent medical examination gave material evidence for suspicion that the wine had been tampered with," the British statement continued.

About four hours later, according to the British, five or six men broke into the room, "forcibly held the attaches down, tore open their clothes and removed their money belts which contained personal papers."

The papers were returned after about an hour and the attaches did not suffer serious injuries, the U.S. spokesman said.

The intruders broke glasses and an ashtray and tore down a curtain, then charged the attaches with the property damage and said there had been complaints of noise in the room, the British said.

Hit by Car, Man Killed

GREENLAND, Ark. (AP)—Charles B. Esbey, 22, of near West Fork was killed Monday night when he was struck by a car as he walked along U.S. 71 just south of Greenland in Washington County.

State Police said the car was driven by Kirby Smith III of Little Rock.

McCarthy Hopeful for Solidarity

By JACK BELL Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota expresses hope his early entry as a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination will solidify behind him currently diffused opposition to President Johnson's Vietnam policies.

McCarthy's official announcement that he will undertake the probably unrewarding task of trying to deny an incumbent President renomination is set for Thursday.

Acknowledging he is ready "to get my feet wet," McCarthy said in an interview Monday that an early start is essential if he is to convince prospective supporters he means business.

He indicated he will pledge to go all the way even if he encounters setbacks in early primaries.

Inherent in this is his obvious belief that some of the score or more of organizations that have been springing up to push Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., as an antiwar candidate will turn to him if they become convinced Kennedy means what he says when he asserts he will not run.

New Hampshire may furnish a test case in this respect. Kennedy backers there have ignored the senator's repudiation of their efforts. Thus far McCarthy's crusade seems to have attracted little attention in the state which holds the first primary, on March 12.

McCarthy isn't at all sure he will be on the ballot there. He said he may visit New Hampshire during Congress' Christmas holiday to sound out his chances in a primary that might find Sen. Thomas J. McIntyre or Gov. John W. King running as a stand-in for Johnson.

McCarthy previously had mentioned the April 30 Massachusetts primary as one in which he might take a flyer. But Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., has been discouraging such a venture.

MARIANNA, Ark. (AP)—Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., said Monday night that Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara's resignation to become president of the World Bank did not surprise him.

Fulbright made his remark regarding a rumor and McNamara's resignation came later.

Fulbright also said he did not believe the country could take care of domestic problems and continue the costs of the war in Vietnam. He said the United States is in greater disarray today than it has been at any time in the last 100 years.

Opening Ahead of Schedule

NEW YORK (AP)—The 4,000-seat amphitheater of the new Madison Square Garden Center has opened with a dedication ceremony and a show—beating by almost three months the 18,000-seat Garden scheduled to open in February.

The amphitheater, called Felt Forum, opened Sunday with a Sol Hurok production of the imported massed bands, drums, pipes and dancers of the Welsh Guards and the Scots Guards.

The Forum is named for Irving Mitchell Felt, chairman and president of Madison Square Garden Center.

Portugal Lists 300 Dead in Recent Floods

LISBON, Portugal (AP)—Dozens of victims of the floods that killed more than 300 persons in central Portugal over the weekend were buried today. More bodies were recovered, and security police charged that "agents of social subversion are seeking to sow panic among the populace."

The official total of deaths from hail rains and flash floods stood at 316, but it did not include dozens of other mud-crusted corpses dug from the ruins of villages north of Lisbon.

Police investigated the possibility of an organized conspiracy against the 40-year-old dictatorship of premier Antonio Salazar following a rash of rumors that explosions were imminent in ammunition and gunpowder deposits at military installations near Lisbon. The rumors caused near panic in the fashionable suburbs of the capital.

At least 10 persons were reported arrested in the capital area.

Hundreds of people were taken out to sea by a night rainstorm, and a number of employees left the city, fleeing mob hysteria of attacks and highway.

The plane's engine has five known fatalities, but they are too distant to observe clearly.

LET THE PUNISHMENT FIT THE CRIME

Dear Helen: I'm a 19-year-old college sophomore, living at home. My brother is 18, has a full-time job, so he can afford a car. I have none, but borrow the family wheels occasionally.

Well, Saturday night I had a big date. The folks were using their car and I asked my brother for the loan of his. He said, "No!" I was burned because he just planned to go off with the guys, so I took his keys while he was in the shower and went off with his car.

He told Dad and when I got home I was grounded for two weeks. That made me pretty darn mad, so I routed my brother out of bed and pasted him in the mouth for being a flink.

Well, Dad heard the commotion. He tore up to the room, bent me over the bed and gave me a spanking. He's a big man. I took it. Dad has never spared the rod, but I thought I had outgrown this sort of treatment. My last spanking was when I was 15. In addition, I'm still grounded for two weeks.

Now I ask you, Helen, isn't a 19-year-old guy too big to be whacked? They don't convict a man twice for the same crime, so why should I be double punished, just because my brother is selfish?—JERRY

Dear Jerry: Isn't a 19-year-old too big for a "thine's mine" attitude that produces a fat lip for the guy who disagrees? Also, two "crimes," rated double punishment.

Hopefully this "stern" discipline cleared the air and taught all three of you a lesson: YOU to respect other's property; your brother—to be more generous; and YOUR FATHER—not to lose his cool.—H.

Police said Richard N. Netter, 23, was bound from Red Hook, N.Y., to Worcester Sunday when he ran into trouble and made a forced landing in his single-engine plane.

Instead of telling the stupid

girls to stop being pushovers, why don't these darn boys stop PUSHING?—A GAL

Dear Helen: That "tester" GUY says he doesn't want to marry a tramp. Well, I don't want to marry a tester!—DIDN'T ACCEPT

Dear Helen: I'm a 16-year-old girl who has done some research too. This 1. "Popular" guys of 15 and 16 are usually "handsome" in reverse. Like—"some hands!" Like maybe a hundred per guy. Avoid 'em!

2. Older fellows of 17 and 18 are more mature. They take your word for it, and they are satisfied at a couple of kisses. They appreciate girls for what they are, not just big makeouts.

3. When you go to a party, you can be sure the younger teens are, the more they pair off in dark corners. Older teens like to sit around and talk. They discuss interesting things too.

4. When a fellow says all girls are tramps, he means all the girls he knows. Like gravitates to like. 5. You don't have to give in to get dates. But you DO have to be choosy.—NO TRAMP

Dear Helen: The guy who wants to play around with tramps while dating, then expects a good girl when he's ready for something important like marriage, ought to be sent to the bargain basement right along with the girls he helped.

ed put there. When are girls going to get smart and demand the same standard of virtue that boys demand of them? Such boys DO exist, and I'll wager they're more manly than those creeps who have so much "proving" to do before marriage.

This idea that getting experience insures sexual compatibility later on is totally wrong. Trust, consideration, kindness, the desire to give happiness is the basis for happy marriage. You gain none of these in backseat encounters. More often, those who sew wild oats end up with a harvest of thistles.—LIFE OBSERVER

Has Honeymoon After 58 Years

CINCINNATI (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. Harry V. Spidle are on their honeymoon today — 58 years after Spidle first proposed to the former Mary C. Segmiller.

Both were 17 at the time of the first proposal in 1909 but the courtship ended because her father felt she was too young for marriage.

Miss Segmiller came to Cincinnati where she eventually became head of Deaconess Hospital's nursing school, retiring in 1964. Spidle became an agricultural researcher and bought a farm near Tiffin, Ohio. He married and raised five children before his wife died.

Last year, Miss Segmiller and Spidle met again in their native Altoona, Pa., where both were visiting relatives. They got together and the courtship resumed. They were married Saturday night.

I, Mrs. Pat McCain, Clerk of the County Court in and for Hempstead County, Arkansas, do hereby certify that the above transcript of claims allowed by the County Court for the months of July, August, and September, 1967, now on file and recorded in my office at the Hempstead County Courthouse, Hope, Arkansas.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and the seal of said Court at office in Hope, Arkansas, this 22nd day of November, 1967.

Mrs. Pat McCain
County Clerk
Hempstead County, Arkansas

If Your Check Bounces

Checks pour through our banking system at the fantastic rate of 17 million per business day. Considering this figure, the process works with remarkable smoothness.

But every so often, into this vast machinery, someone drops a small monkey wrench. Like a bad check. What are the legal consequences?

For one thing, you are committing a crime if you buy something with a check that you know is bad. The essence of the crime is the obtaining of merchandise by false pretenses. In other words, you are knowingly receiving the check as good when the check is bad only because with no intent to defraud, you would not have committed a criminal offense.

Likewise, in most cases, it is not a crime to give a post-dated check that eventually turns out to be bad. At the time you gave the check, you may well have had an honest expectation that it would be good when the due date arrived.

What if your check bounces not because of insufficient funds but because of a clerical error by the bank? Assuming this casts a reflection on your honesty, would you have a right to collect damages from the bank?

Ordinarily, yes. A check is your instruction to the bank to pay a certain sum out of your account. If the bank negligently fails to follow your instructions, it may be held liable for the consequences.

However, it may be difficult for you—as a private individual—to prove that you suffered any measurable harm. Bouncing a business check may really hurt the company's credit rating, but bouncing a personal check usually causes nothing worse than a few moments of embarrassment.

Nor can you blame the bank for rejecting a check which you yourself made out wrong.

In one case, a man complained that his check had bounced "even though I had plenty of money in the bank." But it turned out that his money was in a savings, not a checking, account—hence was not subject to withdrawal by check at all.

Denying his claim for damages, the court said the bank did not have to follow instructions which the depositor had no right to give.

Foot, Mouth Disease Hits British Isles

LONDON (AP) — Britain's epidemic of foot and mouth disease which has ravaged more than 1,000 farms in the past five weeks began hitting Britons in the pocketbook and other ways today.

Meat prices at London's giant Smithfield Market jumped 3 to 8 cents a pound.

The government ordered a ban on horse racing, halting a multimillion-dollar industry. It also closed youth hostels and canceled troop movements around the London suburban areas.

Motorcycle races were called off in infected areas and farmers in Wales demanded a halt to all soccer games.

Farmers contend that anything that brings crowds together can help spread the virus.

The move banning horse racing is unprecedented. Farmers have been demanding it for days. No date was set for a resumption of racing.

Much of the increase in meat prices can be attributed to delays in imports caused by a wildcat dock strike, which did not end until Monday. But the reduction in the supply of domestic meat due to the epidemic is expected to keep the price up.

Consumers Needed Help

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Two months ago, a group of businessmen established the Consumer Credit Counselors Service in Los Angeles to help persons who have gotten in too deep with consumer credit.

More than 300 families, many on the verge of bankruptcy, have asked for help since the service was founded. Officials expect the number to grow even larger when credit agencies, banks and employers begin referring persons with financial problems to the service.

"Some of the people who have come to us are thousands of dollars in debt and haven't a hope of getting straight," said Norman Fawcett, manager of the nonprofit service.

LEGAL NOTICE

In the Chancery Court of Hempstead County, Arkansas.

Betty Jo Powers Smith, Plaintiff vs. Durwood Ray Smith, Defendant

WARNING ORDER

The defendant, Durwood Ray Smith, is hereby warned to appear in this Court within 30 days hereafter and answer the complaint of the Plaintiff herein.

Witness my hand and seal as Clerk of this Court on the 27th day of November, 1967.

If you were called upon to decide on how many crimes were committed in today's simple little hand and just which criminal should be given the severest penalty for his transgressions, what would you determine?

We are going to tell you in advance that South and West were good players and North and East bad ones. South played three no-trump after getting there by bidding as shown in the box. East won the diamond opening with his queen and returned the six. West thought awhile and played low, whereupon South proceeded to make five no-trump. Five spades would have made easily, but East and West should have taken five diamond tricks against three no-trump.

Now for the answers to the criminality involved in the hand. South was guilty of the crime of hogging the play. He really had no excuse for bidding one and three no-trump. He was not guilty of stealing the contract, since East and West handed it to him on a silver platter.

East was guilty of a real crime at trick two. His correct return was the king of diamonds. The lead of the three spot would have merely been a misdemeanor. The play of the six spot was a felony that was punished by loss of game and rubber.

As for West's failure to win the second diamond, we are going to let him off with a suspended sentence to be served the next time he has a blind spot. West should not have been fooled by his partner's ridiculous lead at trick two. He could have reasoned that good player South would have won the first diamond trick with an original holding of king-ten-eight, and that therefore a bad player East was just living up to his reputation when he returned that six spot.

Southern Cal Tops in Poll

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
Southern California is king of 1967 college football.

John McKay's Trojans were awarded 474 points today to 436 to Tennessee in the final Associated Press major college poll.

Southern California, which finished its regular season with a 9-1 record, received 36 first-place ballots in voting by a panel of 49 sports writers and broadcasters.

Tennessee, 8-1 with one regular season game remaining before its Orange Bowl date with Oklahoma, received 11 first-place votes.

Oklahoma was third with 311 points, followed by Indiana with 245 and Notre Dame with 243.

Indiana, Southern Cal's Rose Bowl opponent, dropped out of the Top Ten after losing to Minnesota, but the Hoosiers roared back to gain fourth after upsetting Purdue and finish with a regular-season 9-1 mark.

Notre Dame got one first-place vote and so did Sugar Bowl-bound Wyoming, which finished sixth with 222 points.

Rounding out the Top Ten are Oregon State, Alabama, Purdue and Penn State.

Besides Indiana, Penn State is the only new member of the Top Ten. It was a last-chance situation for the Gator Bowl-bound Nittany Lions, who had not been in the Top Ten before at any time this season.

UCLA, fourth last week before being upset by Syracuse, and Houston, 10th before being surprised by Tulsa, dropped out of the rankings.

The Top Ten, with first place votes in parentheses and points on a 10-9-8-etc basis:

1. Southern Cal (36) 474
2. Tennessee (11) 436
3. Oklahoma 311
4. Indiana 245
5. Notre Dame (1) 243
6. Wyoming (1) 222
7. Oregon State 154
8. Alabama 152
9. Purdue 150
10. Penn State 98

A&M Rally Defeats the AIC Stars

MONTICELLO, Ark. (AP) — Phil Clem and Tommy Larence collaborated on a three-yard touchdown pass play with less than four minutes left in the game as Arkansas A&M rallied for a 14-13 victory over the Arkansas Intercollegiate All-Stars were Monday night.

Larence also scored on a 13-yard run in the second period. John Morphis' two extra points proved to be the difference.

The Weevils scored first when quarterback Gary Tate fumbled the snap from center on fourth and one at the Stars' 13. Larence picked the ball up and raced untouched into the end zone.

Henderson's Walt Lee threw 23 yards to Southern State's Travis Giles for the Stars' first touchdown. Dairiel O'Bar's extra point tied it 7-7 at the half.

The Stars took the lead with less than seven minutes to go in the game on a 38-yard touchdown run by Harding's Jimmy Howard. O'Bar missed the conversion.

The Weevils drove 60 yards for the winning touchdown.

Merger of Conferences Called Off

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) — Southland Conference Commissioner Taylor Wilkins of Bryan, Tex., said Monday that a meeting concerning the proposed merger of the Southland and the Gulf States Conference was called off because the consensus was that the merger did not have much of a chance.

Wilkins said representatives of the two conferences were to have met Monday at Shreveport. He also said no other meetings were planned.

Wilkins said a merger would have meant a 12-team conference and that that was the apparent stumbling block. Five teams, including Arkansas State University, are in the Southland and seven teams are in the Gulf States Conference.

Beban Seems Sure for Top Trophy

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Gary Beban, UCLA's scrambling quarterback, appeared to have the inside track today in a three-way battle with Southern California's O. J. Simpson and Purdue's Leroy Keyes for the coveted Heisman Trophy.

The winner of the trophy, awarded annually to the nation's outstanding collegiate football player, will be announced today.

A study of statistics shows little to choose between Beban, the nation's top signal caller, and Simpson and Keyes, two powerful running backs, but it was expected the UCLA star would gain the award because he is the only senior in the trio.

In a showdown between Beban and Simpson two weeks ago, USC beat UCLA 21-20 and gained the host spot in the Rose Bowl. Beban passed for 301 yards and Simpson rushed for 177, including two touchdowns.

USC moved into first place in The Associated Press poll after that game and UCLA slipped badly the following week, losing to Syracuse.

"But that game didn't change anything," said one selector. "We voted before it was played. I voted for Beban and so did a lot of others."

Beban finished the season with a total offense figure of 1,586 yards on 301 plays. He accounted for 19 touchdowns passing and rushing and set 10 UCLA career offensive records.

"It is inconceivable that any one could be of more value to a team than Beban is to ours," says his coach, Tommy Prothro. "He can beat you every way."

Simpson was a workhorse in the USC backfield and riddled enemy lines for 1,415 yards and 11 touchdowns in 266 carries.

A junior transfer from the City College of San Francisco, O. J., who is nicknamed Orange Juice after his favorite liquid refreshment, gained 150 yards or more in seven of USC's 10 games.

Simpson, who runs 100 yards in 9.4 seconds and has been clocked in 4.5 for 40 yards, is a member of USC's record-breaking 440-yard relay team.

Keyes scored 13 touchdowns for Purdue, rushing 149 times for 986 yards. He also completed five of 10 passes for 59 yards and three TDs, and caught 45 passes for 758 yards and six TDs.

A rangy 6-foot-3, 199 pounds, he wears contact lenses and is almost as strong defensively as he is offensively.

Keyes is the nation's leading scorer with 19 TDs.

Last year's Heisman winner was quarterback Steve Spurrier of Florida, now with the professional San Francisco 49ers.

Bruins Tops in Statistics in Hockey

NEW YORK (AP) — Boston's rejuvenated Bruins, led by veteran Johnny Bucyk, dominate the top of the National Hockey League scoring race.

Official NHL statistics released today show Bucyk in second place, three points back of Chicago's Bobby Hull, whose 27 points on 18 goals and nine assists still leads the league.

Bucyk picked up eight points on two goals and six assists last week and boosted his season's total to 11-13-24. A 13-year NHL veteran, Bucyk has scored 227 career goals with the Bruins, just two shy of the club record held by Boston's current general manager, Milt Schmidt.

Right behind Bucyk in the scoring race come two more Bruins, Fred Stanfield and John McKenzie, tied for third place with 23 points apiece. The trio has helped Boston — last place finishers in six of the last seven seasons — grab the early NHL lead.

Another Bruin, Phil Esposito, is tied with New York's Jean Ratelle and Detroit's Alex Delvecchio for eighth place with 11 points — one point back of Detroit's Gordie Howe, Montreal's Yvan Cournoyer and Pittsburgh's Andy Bathgate, who share fifth place.

State Player Gets Recognition

NEW YORK (AP) — Quarterback Bobby Trier of State College of Arkansas today was named to the honorable mention list of the Associated Press Little All-America football team.

Trier, the AP's total offense record holder, was the only Arkansas honor.

Baseball to Clamp Down on Spit Ball

By CHARLES GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
MEXICO CITY (AP) — "If a pitcher is clever enough he can throw anything he wants. We are just trying to make sure he doesn't want to throw a spitball."

That was the way Paul Richards, general manager of the Atlanta Braves, reasoned the latest change in baseball rules, a change designed to put some teeth in the ban against the spitball.

The Playing Rules Committee amended Rule 802A Monday, to prohibit a pitcher from touching his mouth or lips or spitting in his hand, glove or on the ball. The first violation brings a warning from the umpire, the second automatic expulsion from the game.

Richards, who proposed the change, said, "It is too late when a manager complains after a pitcher has thrown a spitball. It's all over then and there's no proof. So it must be stopped sooner, at the mouth, where 85 per cent of the foreign substances come from."

The rule applies at the start of next season even to those pitchers who touch their mouth in nervous habit, even if they've never thrown a spitball in their lives.

Spitballs were banned at the start of the 1920 season but 19 pitchers who were throwing spitballs then were allowed to continue the practice until retirement.

Burleigh Grimes of the St. Louis Cardinals, who retired in the mid-1930s, was the last of the legal spitball pitchers.

But pitchers kept up the practice on the sly. Almost every team in the major leagues has at least one wetball pitcher although Cal Kousser of the New York Mets in the only active hurler to make a public admission that his pitches have something on them other than natural effort.

Charles Segal, president of the Playing Rules Committee, announced the change on the first day of the annual winter baseball meetings. It was suggested during an unprecedented meeting of managers and general managers of the 20 major league clubs.

"This is the first step," Segal said, indicating more drastic action might be taken if disqualification from the game isn't enough.

The managers and general managers also acted on ideas put forth by Commissioner William D. Eckert to speed up play and improve the game's image.

These included giving the umpire sole authority to determine if a ball is in good enough condition to keep in the game and asking all clubs to use golf carts to haul relief pitchers and pinch hitters from distant bullpens.

The ball proposal would keep pitchers from delaying the game by asking for several new balls on a lining and stop batters from stepping from the box to ask for a new ball.

In other developments, Phil Pilon, 64, announced his retirement, effective in December 1968, as president of the National Association minor leagues.

Joe DiMaggio, executive vice president of the Oakland Athletics, announced the appointment of Bill Cutler as vice president in charge of public relations. Cutler had been an administrative assistant in the office of the American League president.

The New York Mets acquired catcher J.C. Martin from the Chicago White Sox and pitcher Bill Denney to Washington to complete deals made earlier.

Small College All-America Team Picked

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Stars from 22 different colleges, led by an outstanding center and a trio of repeaters from the 1966 team, were named to the 1967 Little College All-America football team today following a national survey of coaches and newsmen.

The highly rated center is Victor Bender of Northeast Louisiana State, while two of the repeaters are halfbacks Carl Garrett of New Mexico Highlands and Don Hass of the powerful Montana State aggregation.

Despite his second straight appearance on the star-studded roster of small college heroes, the 6-foot, 215-pound runner for the New Mexico Cowboys is only a junior and has a chance next season to be named a third time.

If he does, he will equal the record of Eddie Lebaron, then of the College of the Pacific and later a National Football League star, who was named in 1947, 1948 and 1949.

At the helm of the 1967 aggregation is Charles "Chuck" McKee of Lawrence, a leader as well as an athlete. He is the only athlete in the past 20 years for whom unsolicited recommendations from all coaches whose teams he opposed were received.

McKee, among the national leaders in all phases of offense, is a high school buddy of Rocky Blier, the Notre Dame captain, but came to Lawrence for its premed course, in which he is a B-plus student.

His presence on the first team moved Bob "Holy" Toledo of San Francisco State to the second team and Gary Sandbo of Augustana College in Sioux Falls, S.D., to the honorable mention. Toledo is the nation's leader in total offense among the smaller colleges while the physically small Sandbo — he's only 5-foot-9 and weighs 175 at most — is the only player to have gained 1,000 yards or more in each of his three seasons in the rugged North Central Conference.

Completing the backfield is Lee White of Weber, whom some scouts have rated the best fullback in the country. He carries a bruising 232 pounds on his 6-4 frame.

The third repeater from the 1966 team is DeWayne Nix of Texas A&I, at end. Like Garrett, he has a year of eligibility remaining and could equal the Lebaron record. He relies on speed and agility, lacking the physical stature usually expected of an end or a Texan. He stands 5-11 and weighs 180.

The other end is Haven Moses of San Diego State and one of the main reasons the Californians have had two such outstanding seasons in a row. He is 6-3 and 196 and is expected to be in the first round of the approaching pro draft.

Eddie Joyner of Lenoir Rhyne, up from last season's second team, and John Christen of Wagner's unbeaten Seahawks are the kickless spigons Wynn of Lamar Tech and Leland Hughes of Delta State are the guards.

Colonels Find Key at Last 50 Scoring

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Kentucky Colonels finally took a step toward curing one of their major ailments — a lack of scoring.

The Colonels jumped to a 31-19 lead in the first quarter Monday night and went on to trounce the New Jersey Americans 138-100 for their first American Basketball Association victory in four games and the first ever under new coach Gene Rhodes.

Louie Dampier paced Kentucky with 25 points. New Jersey's Tony Jackson took game honors with 31.

In the only other ABA game, Art Becker poured in 30 points to lead the Houston Mavericks to 101-87 victory over the Pittsburgh Pipers, who were paced by Ira Harge's 18 points.

Kitty Cats Defeated by Lewisville

BY: RALPH ROUTON
Star Sportswriter

Simply not quick enough to pull it out, the Hope Kitty Cats fell to Lewisville 31-23 in the first round of the Stamps Jr. Invitational Tournament last night.

It appeared for a good while that the Hope girls might pull through with their first victory, but a spirited Lewisville comeback in the final two quarters thwarted the locals' hopes.

Dee Singleton led the Kitty Cats with 12 points, followed by Cindy Hollis, who sacked 7, and Lois Ford had four. Patricia Powell paced Lewisville with her 13 points. Debbie Cook and Robin McLaughlin added eight apiece, and Martha Singleton picked up two.

The Kitty Cats do not play again until December 7, when they host Bobcat at Jones Field House preceding a Lady Cat game. Tonight the Lady Cats, along with the Bobkittens and the "B" Lizards, travel to Cale for three games, beginning probably at 6:00 p.m. This could be moved to 6:30, as the Junior Boys open the evening's activity, followed by the lady cats and the "B" team games.

This evening's contests include the Kickoff (still thinking football) of the season for the boys' teams. The Bobkittens, coached by Gaylord Solomon, have been working hard in attempting to improve. Little material returns from last year's club, but this bunch of scrappers could really cause trouble, starting with a fine Cale club tonight, then Magnolia in the Stamps Tourney tomorrow night.

In the last few weeks the Hope Bobcats have showed a steady improvement, and yesterday before leaving for the Jr. Girls game in Stamps this writer observed some of the Cats' scrimmage. From the looks of things, Coach Joe Austin is going to do another outstanding job this year, as the team appeared pretty sharp in their passing, although still they were a little lax in scoring ability.

The Bobcats open their regular season this Friday night with the "B" Lizards against the AAA El Dorado Wildcats in Jones Field House, with the opening scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Tomorrow's issue of the Star will include a special on basketball, with a few articles on basketball in this area and pictures of the local teams.

Iba to Direct Olympic Team

NEW YORK (AP) — Ben Carnevale, chairman of the Olympic Basketball Committee, Monday announced that Oklahoma State coach Hank Iba will direct the U.S. team in the 1968 Games.

Royals Cut Their Cage Roster

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Royals of the National Basketball Association Monday cut their roster to 11 by sending Len Chappell to the Detroit Pistons for cash and a third-round draft choice next year.

Tigers Open Cage Season Tonight

The Yerger High School basketball season started tonight with two teams in action and the first game begins at 7:30 p.m. Blevins will furnish the opposition.

Both Junior Coach, George Straughter and Senior Coach, D.G. Burkett have high hopes for a winning season.

Starting lineup for the Senior squad will be Wilber Woods, 6-2 and Claude Simpson, 5-8 1/2 at guards; Terry Veige, 6-5 at center; Willie Thornton, 5-7 and Roy Smith, 6-2, are the forwards.

Stewart Is Finally a N.Y. Ranger

NEW YORK (AP) — Ron Stewart is finally a New York Ranger.

Bumored on his way to New York in a variety of trades throughout his 16 year National Hockey League career, Stewart finally became a Ranger Monday in a four-player trade between New York and St. Louis. The Ranger sent center Rod Berenson and Barclay Plager, a minor league defenseman, to St. Louis for Stewart, the Blues' top goal scorer, and center Ron Attwell.

British Have Way to Join Trade Group

By CARL HARTMAN
Associated Press Writer
BRUSSELS (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle's new veto of Britain's application for Common Market membership strengthened the belief of some experts today that Britain had better settle for associate membership.

This status, though humiliating because it would cast Britain in a second-class, nonvoting role, would open the Common Market tariff wall to British products.

Prime Minister Harold Wilson has said he does not want any half-measures. But continental experts believe associate membership would be a good thing for Britain and probably the only kind of relationship with the Common Market the British can get as long as De Gaulle is president.

The French president made clear Monday at his semiannual news conference that devaluation of the British pound has had no effect on his determination to keep Britain out of the six-nation trade community.

"The present Common Market is incompatible with the British economy the way it is," he said.

The British Foreign Office, without mentioning De Gaulle, noted that a reply to its application had to come from "the existing members of the community as a whole." This indicated Britain officially still hope the other five members can change De Gaulle's mind, but this seems most unlikely and only one "no" vote is necessary to block membership.

As an associate member of the community, Britain would join Greece, Turkey and 18 African states—most of them former French colonies—who have no vote in determining the Common Market's general policy, but are consulted on issues of interest to them.

In the French view, associate status offers the British a place in a continental customs union for its industrial products. British manufacturers would have access to a greatly enlarged market, competing on equal terms with products made by the Six.

The associate arrangement would leave Britain out of Common Market joint farm policy, the sector which has had the most unifying effect so far on the six member countries.

Credit Squeeze Signs Evident, Homebuilding to Be First to Feel

Turk Fleet Maneuvers Off Cyprus

By ALEX EFTY
Associated Press Writer
NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — A Turkish naval task force appeared off the north coast of Cyprus today, raising new fears of invasion, but a well placed source in Ankara said it was conducting a "normal exercise."

Ankara and Athens appeared to be near agreement on measures to avert a war between them over Cyprus. Foreign observers in the Turkish capital suggested that the naval ships were maneuvering off Cyprus to put pressure on the Athens government.

Discounting the renewed fears of invasion, sources in Ankara said the Turkish fleet consisted of six destroyers, two submarines and other smaller ships, but troops and other personnel carriers remained in the south Turkish port of Mersin.

Irfan Aksu, chairman of the New Turkey party, said Greece has agreed to the key Turkish demand to withdraw some 8,000-12,000 Greek troops on Cyprus.

President Makarios, the leader of the 520,000 Greek Cypriots, met twice in Nicosia with Jose Rolz-Bennett of the United Nations and told newsmen: "There will be no war."

Part of the Turkish fleet that had assembled on the south coast of Turkey steamed off early today amid rumors that an invasion of Cyprus was imminent. But the departures were destroyers, submarines, patrol boats and minesweepers. Transports and landing craft loaded with troops, tanks and last year's and they began devaluing before the Federal Reserve Board raised the discount rate from 4 to 4½ per cent in reacting to devaluation of the British pound.

This is the rate charged by the Federal Reserve for money borrowed by commercial banks. Other interest rates are pegged upward from it.

But since then the government has reported other indications of tightening money, especially for mortgages.

January could be a key month for mortgage lenders and homebuilders.

The end of the year also marks the end of a dividend period at savings and loan associations and institutions at that time could face a possible withdrawal of deposits for investments paying higher interest.

This trend last year led to sharp reductions in the growth of savings at S&Ls, the largest single source of home mortgage funds, and depressed homebuilding.

There have been these indications of tightening mortgage money the past few days:

—The Federal Home Loan Bank Board reported an increase in interest rates on conventional home loans to 6.38 per cent for new houses during October. It was the second straight monthly rise although still below the record 6.49 per cent of last December.

—The board also reported the smallest October gain in savings by S & Ls for that month since 1960, except for last year when deposits actually declined.

—Loan commitments by S&Ls — an indication of future homebuilding — are showing signs of slowing with such pledges down during September and October.

—The Federal National Mortgage Association reduced the price it will pay for mortgages it buys in its secondary market operations. This was done to conserve the agency's resources.

First Snow of Season Hits State

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A large, cold high pressure system located over Arkansas and southern Missouri has dumped measurable amounts of snow on Arkansas for the first time this winter.

The U. S. Weather Bureau at Little Rock said the snow would continue in the state through tonight, with measurable amounts occurring mostly in the extreme north and northwestern portions of the state.

By midmorning, snow had fallen at Fort Smith, Fayetteville, Harrison, Hot Springs and Pine Bluff. The weather bureau said snow had struck the ground at Fort Smith and Clarksville and 2 inches was reported on the ground at Alama.

The State Police said it had no reports of hazardous driving conditions.

The bureau forecast minimum temperatures of generally in the 30s and low 40s for tonight with maximums Wednesday reaching the 50s.

The overnight low was 17 degrees at Calico Rock while Batesville and Gilbert recorded 19 degrees.

Gold Trading Slumps Sharply in France

PARIS (AP) — Demand for gold on the Paris market slumped sharply today, but trading was still greater than normal.

Only 5½ tons were handled compared with 10 tons Monday. About one ton is the usual market quota.

Gold traders said that the fall-off in demand apparently reflected belief that the "volatility of the dollar has been checked."

It was the first day since Nov. 17, the day before devaluation of the British pound, that the Paris gold market was calm, with demand off.

Gls Victims of Hit and Run Attacks

Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command today reported five more Viet Cong hit-and-run attacks scattered across South Vietnam. Ground fighting also was renewed in a coastal lowlands valley in the northern part of the country.

"It's a kind of cyclic thing," one U.S. officer said of the rash of harassing attacks that began last Saturday. "They are no worse than they have been several times this year. There is no real pattern to this. There's no telling what they're up to."

In the air war against North Vietnam, the northeast monsoons limited American pilots to 17 missions Monday but the targets included two Red air bases, a third uncompleted airfield used for storage and a barracks area.

The Viet Cong, in their latest hit-and-run attacks raided two U.S.-South Vietnamese air bases, a government subsector headquarters and a national police station.

The guerrillas set fire to four light observation planes, burned up one helicopter and damaged three others, sank one junk and damaged another. At the subsector headquarters, they inflicted heavy damage on an electric power house, a water company and the information office.

While material damage was moderate to heavy, casualties were light. At least two military men were killed and eight others wounded, including one American killed and five Americans wounded.

This type of warfare intensified in the wake of the three-week battle at Dak To with 14 mortar assaults Saturday in the Mekong Delta. Over the weekend, the Communists also hit two U.S. Special Forces camps, the U.S. Air Base at Nha Trang and two American artillery bases in the central highlands.

Sharp ground fighting was reported Monday in the northern 1st Corps Area along the coastal lowlands below Da Nang. Four U.S. infantrymen and three North Vietnamese were killed and 21 Americans were wounded in a six-hour battle 21 miles north-northwest of the provincial capital of Tam Ky in the same fortified Communist valley where 12 U.S. Marines were killed and 80 wounded the previous day.

The Viet Cong raided two allied air bases just before midnight, both in the Mekong Delta south of Saigon and within 25 miles of each other.

No Money for Aged Placed in Homes

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Welfare Commissioner Len E. Blaylock said Monday that aged persons in the State Hospital who qualified for welfare grants would no longer be accepted for placement in private nursing homes because of a shortage of funds.

Dr. George W. Jackson, superintendent of the State Hospital, said he would discuss the stop order with Blaylock. He said it cost the State Hospital $12 a day in state funds to house persons who are not deranged.

Blaylock said he would attempt to work out a solution whereby part of the nursing home bill for these persons would be paid by the State Hospital if the arrangement between the State Hospital and the Welfare Department is resumed.

Heavy Snows Hit New York

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — New Yorkers in snowbelt regions off the Great Lakes battled up to two feet of wind-blown snow today, and more kept falling. Some schools were closed.

The heaviest snow hit southwestern New York, off Lake Erie. A foot and more also clogged areas southeast of Lake Ontario.

Yet the heavy snow skipped the cities.

Resignation Brings Speculation on U.S. Fgn. Policy Change

By BOB HORTON
AP Military Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara's impending resignation from his key Cabinet post to head the World Bank produces a flood of questions ranging from war policy to politics.

Among the most pertinent: —What if any effect will the resignation have on U.S. policy in Vietnam?

—What are the implications for the 1968 election, in which President Johnson is expected to seek re-election and the Vietnam war appears a key issue?

—Who will succeed the man who served as America's defense chief longer than anyone in history?

Some Pentagon sources have long contended that McNamara wanted out of the job because he felt he was losing his bounce after nearly seven years in one of the Cabinet's—and the world's—most exacting posts.

As defense chief he managed an institution with 4.5 million employees, an $80 billion budget and a nuclear capacity that could devastate the earth.

Those who express that view say McNamara would have stepped down long since except for his sense of duty to a nation and a President embroiled in a difficult, widely unpopular war.

They say McNamara stayed on so long only because he felt his resignation during the Vietnam war might have been interpreted as personal opposition to President Johnson's war policy.

On the other hand, McNamara has never concealed his disagreement with those U.S. military chiefs and members of Congress who favor further acceleration of the bombing of North Vietnam.

He has made it clear publicly that he believes the bombing, while useful, is of limited value and that the war's outcome depends on ground victories in South Vietnam.

This year's stepping up of U.S. bombing of the North is viewed in some quarters as evidence that Johnson has begun to listen more to his military advisers than to McNamara.

Some Pentagon officials argue that McNamara's influence with the President has not waned. They point out McNamara has opposed any air attacks on Hanoi Harbor's docks, and they have not been hit.

Some are likely to see in the resignation either a decision by McNamara to leave the administration because he could no longer support Johnson's war policy, or a Johnson move to dump his defense chief in an effort to approach a bid for re-election with a new war policy team.

And there no doubt will be those who see McNamara's departure as heralding a stepped-up drive by Johnson to end the war as soon as possible by bombing North Vietnam into

Not Factual, Tagged to Report

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House terms "not a factual story" a published report that President Johnson has received encouragement from Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin to seek a U.S.-Soviet summit meeting.

Newsweek magazine reported Monday that Johnson received a letter from Kosygin within the past 10 days and as a result was encouraged to seek a face-to-face meeting with Soviet Communist party chief Leonid Brezhnev.

White House press secretary George Christian told newsmen he had been informed by Secretary of State Dean Rusk and special presidential aide Walt W. Rostow that "the first we heard of this particular matter was when it appeared in print."

"It is not a factual story," said Christian.

There had been recurrent reports in recent months that McNamara was anxious to leave his Cabinet post, which has often demanded working days of 12 and 18 hours, sometimes seven days a week.

A former president of the Ford Motor Co., McNamara has been defense chief since the inauguration of President John F. Kennedy in January 1961. No other man has held the post that long.

When Johnson became president four years ago, he quickly made it apparent that McNamara and Secretary of State Dean Rusk were particular favorites of his within the Cabinet he inherited from Kennedy.

They became key presidential advisers managing the enlarged war in Vietnam.

McNamara has been a stalwart public spokesman for Johnson's Vietnam policies. However, it was understood that within the private councils of government, he frequently has advocated restraint in the conduct of the war.

McNamara's impending departure immediately raised speculation that he would be replaced in the defense post by one of Johnson's closest political allies, Texas Gov. John B. Connally, a former secretary of the navy. But Connally, who recently announced he would not seek re-election as governor, said Monday there was no truth to such rumors.

McNamara Will Head World Bank

By FRANK CORMIER
WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara is resigning to become president of the World Bank but the White House — without confirming the shift — said today no change in the conduct of the Vietnam war will result.

Press secretary George Christian persisted in telling newsmen he was not commenting on what he treated as only a report that McNamara is leaving the Cabinet after the first of the year. But there was no denial either.

When he was asked whether McNamara's departure from the Pentagon would mean any change in the conduct of the war he replied:

"No, I don't know of any change in the conduct of the war for any reason."

Christian also answered "no" to an inquiry whether there was any sharp difference of opinion between President Johnson and the defense secretary over bombing policy in Vietnam.

McNamara's formal selection as $40,000-a-year president of the international lending institution will come Wednesday when the bank's 20 directors meet at its Washington headquarters.

He will succeed another American George D. Woods.

With President Johnson's approval, McNamara, 51, was secretly nominated for the bank presidency last week. The nomination was made by the United States, which traditionally plays the nominating role because it is the largest single financial contributor to the bank.

Woods' term expires at the end of this year but he has an interim appointment to serve an additional year unless a successor is named earlier. There was no word on just when McNamara would take over, and so it could be early next year—or not for months.

McNamara's impending departure immediately raised speculation that he would be replaced in the defense post by one of Johnson's closest political allies, Texas Gov. John B. Connally, a former secretary of the navy. But Connally, who recently announced he would not seek re-election as governor, said Monday there was no truth to such rumors.
